

Haunting Of Grey Cliffs

from The Prelude: Book 1: Childhood and... | Poetry Foundation

To wander half the night among the Cliffs. And the smooth Hollows, where the woodcocks ran. Along the open turf. In thought and wish . That time, my shoulder all with springes hung, I was a fell destroyer. On the heights. Scudding away from snare to snare, I plied. My anxious visitation, hurrying on, Still hurrying, hurrying onward; moon and stars. Were shining o'er my head; I was ...
